Cattle Entry Form - 2023

Cattle Entry Fee - $10 Per Head No Health Certificate Is Required For Wisconsin Cattle Cattle Originating Outside Wisconsin must follow import guidelines found at: www.datcp.wi.gov

Premise ID is required - for more information go to www.datcp.wi.gov

Due to limited space we suggest cattle come to the show washed and only do spot washing at the fairgrounds Bulls must be born on or after 01/01/2023.

Females must be calves or yearling heifers.

Steers may be any age.

Animals must be healthy with no ringworm.

Cattle deemed unhealthy or with ringworm may be sent home by the Kids & Cows staff or Veterinarian. Cattle must be stalled in the barn by 9:00 A.M. 10/14/2023.

| Name of Owner   | of Cattle         |                         | -         |
|-----------------|-------------------|-------------------------|-----------|
| Farm Premise II | )                 |                         | _         |
| Farm Name       |                   |                         | _         |
| Address         |                   |                         | -         |
| Phone Number_   |                   |                         |           |
| Email           |                   |                         |           |
| Breed           | Heifer/Bull/Steer | Birthdate(month & year) | Permanent |
| 1               | 1                 |                         | 1         |

| Breed | Heifer/Bull/Steer | B1rthdate(month & year) | Permanent ID |
|-------|-------------------|-------------------------|--------------|
|       |                   |                         |              |
|       |                   |                         |              |
|       |                   |                         |              |
|       |                   |                         |              |
|       |                   |                         |              |
|       |                   |                         |              |
|       |                   |                         |              |